

LITERACY

Non chronological reports on the Wrekin.
Writing our own legend of the Wrekin based on the Wrekin Giant.
Persuasive letters.
Role play and writing in character.
Recount of when the Romans arrived in Wroxeter.
Persuasive letters.
Writing based on our novel "Street Child"

GEOGRAPHY

Identify and describe how the physical features affect the human activity within a location.

COMPUTING:

Internet safety.
Researching and evaluating different sources.
Animation and photography

MUSIC

Sing Victorian Christmas Carols from memory. Work with a local musician to produced our own Christmas carols.

SCIENCE - Evolution and Inheritance.

How humans and animals share characteristics.
Reasons why variation occurs.
How fossils are formed and what we can learn from them.
To learn how different species have evolved and varied over time.
To recognise that living things produce offspring however these are not identical to their parents.

PE

Swimming
Invasion Games –
Netball.
Dance inspired by The Industrial Revolution.

In The Shadow Of The Wrekin

NUMERACY

Place Value- Order, round, compare numbers including negative numbers.

Read Roman numerals to 1000 (M) and recognise years written in Roman numerals.

Develop arithmetic skills and solve problems involving all calculations.

HISTORY - A Local Study

Investigating life on and around the Wrekin over an extended period of time including modern day.

Select suitable sources of evidence to deduce information about the past.

Describe the main changes to the local area over an extended period of time.

Look at Wellington in the Victorian period by exploring architecture and significant developments in the town, for example the railways.

RE

What can we learn from religions about temptation?
Making positive choices.
The Christmas story.

ART

Looking at local Victorian artist Cecil Lawson and comparing with David Hockney to create landscapes of Wellington.
Victorian miniature paintings based on Wellington portrait artist Andrew Plimer.
Design and Technology- Create Victorian Christmas cards.

MFL - French

French Food linked to our twinned town in France Chanteny Maubrey.